	07-03-2005 Shri L.C. Dash, counsel for the petitioner. Shri Manindra Shrivastava, Sr. Advocate with Shri Amit Verma, counsel for the respondents. Heard. Shri Shrivastava, Sr. Advocate submits that after filing of this petition, the petitioner has been declared successful on revaluation of the answer sheet for the examination held in 2004. However, he submits that so far as the question of production of answer sheet of the examination of 2003 is concerned, since there was no order of this Court to preserve the answer sheet of the examination 2003 and the same has been disposed of in view of clause 15 of Ordinance No.5, which envisages that the answer books shall be destroyed or otherwise to dispose of after six months from the date of declaration of the results and therefore, in view of this position now the University is not in a position to produce the answer sheet of examination 2003. He further submits that inspite of the above legal position under the orders of the Registrar of the respondent University, attempt was made to search the answer sheet in the bundles lying for disposal in the godown but that attempt has not yielded any result. In view of the above position, since there was no order of this Court for preservation of the answer sheet and the answer sheet has already been disposed of, the petition has been rendered infractuous as in the circumstances nothing can be done and moreover the petitioner has already been successful in the examination 2004. Accordingly, the petition stands disposed of as infractuous. Sd/- L.C.BHADOO Judge
